SHOWDOWN 76

The Division Two showdown is set for 10 a.m. Thanksgiving morning as the undefeated Tewksbury Redmen enter enemy territory to tangle with the once-beaten Wilmington Wildcats. The game will determine who goes to the Division Two Super Bowl December 4 at Boston University's Nickerson Field. The Wildcats and the Redmen could share the MVC title if the Wildcats can knock off the conference leading TMHS squad.

Tickets for the contest at Wilmington High School have been bought at record pace. The largest crowd to ever see the Turkey Day battle was in 1971 when 10,000 rooters jammed the WHS field.

Tewksbury is rated number one in Division Two while the Wildcats are lodged in the fourth spot according to the latest ratings. The Redmen were rated no better than sixth in many MVC pre-season crystal balls. The Wildcats were expected to wage a season-long battle with defending Division Two champ Andover for the MVC crown. Andover has settled comfortably in the middle of the pack while Tewksbury has ripped up several opponents enroute to the showdown with Fred Bellissimo's Wildcats. Wilmington suffered their only defeat at the hands of Central Catholic 14-8 when four key players were slowed by injuries. After a week and a half of solid workouts both squads are primed for what should be the best football game to be played in the Merrimack Valley in several years. A look at the two teams before the titanic clash:

Tewksbury Redmen - Head Coach Bob Aylward sees the game as a fierce hitting contest. As usual the Tewksbury preparation by assistant coaches Jim Kastritis, Connie Barry, Jerry Rideout, and Barry Sheehan has been filled with hard work and stress on opposition details. The Redmen, as has been the case all fall, are in good health.

Receiver Pat Puzo is back after missing two games with a sprained ankle, and there is even talk that senior guard John Limoli might suit up for the first time all year after being sidelined during the pre-season with a knee injury.

Aylward has pointed to the Wilmington size along the lines as a potential problem for his team, especially on a muddy field.

In recent weeks the Redmen have looked sluggish against the weaker teams in the MVC, bombing the weak clubs has not added many points to the TMHS ratings total.

The players to watch on offense for TMHS are quarterback Brian Wolfe (17), running backs Jay Petros (33) and Gene Roux (21), fullback Rick Billings (32) and receivers Puzo (87), Weisensee (80) and Brown (12).

Wilmington Wildcats: The cats are coming off a good game at Billerica with everyone in one piece. For the first time in several weeks Coach Fred Bellissimo reports that his squad is reasonably healthy. Dino Esposito, Gordie Fitch, John Campbell, Jim Stewart and Ray Gaud have all bounced back from injuries that slowed them down midway through the campaign.

The players to watch for Wilmington are fullback Fitch (34) who has scored 98 points and gained 920 yards despite missing two games with ankle injuries; halfback Bob Sferazza (10) termed by Aylward as "the fastest back in the league;" quarterback Stewart (13) who has 72 points, including 16 conversion kicks. Big Jim also has run up 533 yards rushing and thrown six touchdown passes.

While the Wildcats depend on power, the Redmen will look to the sweep to provide offensive thrust. Both defenses are superb. The Redmen defensive 11 has allowed 36 points while the Wildcats have surrendered just 40.

New water rates in Wilmington

Water rates are being reduced, in Wilmington, for the families which do not use much water. The new rate becomes effective on January first. Families which do not use over 1200 cubic feet of water in a quarter-year will be charged $8.40 per quarter. This is a reduction of $2.85 from the present charges.

There will also be a reduction for families which use less than 3100 cubic feet in a quarter, but it will not be the same proportion. The 3100 cubic foot mark is the "break-even point. Over that the rates increase. Those who are using 3200 cubic feet or more, per quarter year, will be paying higher rates than formerly.

The new rates are the result of a year long study by the firm of Coffin and Richardson, Inc. of Boston.

Lake Street bridge scheduled next summer

Rep. Fred F. Cain of Wilmington has been advised by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works that construction of the Lake Street bridge has been put off until next summer.

The advent of the winter season is the cause. It had previously been estimated that the bridge would be put in place during early December.

Concrete abutments will have to be put in place, and are now being designed.

Mr. Cain was also told that a barrier fence is being designed for the Route 93 bridge, near the Woburn Street School, for the purpose of protecting school children. The fence should be installed during the summer of 1977.

Want a bet?

A good football contest often attracts betting, but a check around Wilmington and Tewksbury on Monday found very little action. One man was willing to go double or nothing for Wilmington, but he could find no takers.

Action in Tewksbury was also sparse, but what life there was found Tewksbury to be the favorite by anywhere from 1 to 7 points.

Lowell was going for Tewksbury, again by up to seven points.

Informally, some bets are around, mostly in the ten dollar range.

Walkathon money wanted

The Wilmington Community Fund has requested that people who participated in the Walkathon in September please send in the money collected. Parents of children who solicited pledges are asked to see that the children follow through with the collections. Parents are asked to write checks, so that children can avoid sending money through the mail.

Checks should be sent to the Wilmington Community Fund, P.O. Box 147, Wilmington.

Pat Taylor is Executive Secretary

Pat Taylor of Glendale Circle has been named Executive Secretary of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce. She assumed her new office during the past week.

Mrs. Taylor will be in the offices of the chamber daily, during the early hours of the afternoon.

Pat Nee is Director Drop-in-Center

Pat Nee of Harris Street has been named, by the Wilmington Council on Aging, as the Director of the Drop-in-Center at Wilmington Plaza.

Miss Nee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nee.

Pickets at Keene

Members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers walk the picket line at Keene Corporation on Industrial Way in Wilmington.

Workers strike at two Wilmington plants

Employees at two industries in south Wilmington took to the picket lines on Friday in two unrelated strikes.

At NAPA auto parts warehouse on Woburn Street some 70 warehouse workers struck for higher pay and other issues. Members of the United Auto Workers, local 1586, they are picketing in six shifts.

Local 1569 Chairman Richard Geldart said that other issues at stake were mandatory overtime and vacations. The wages were not too far apart in negotiations, he said.

NAPA spokesman Bob Brecci said that he had no estimate as to the possible duration of the strike. He said that the next negotiation session was set for Friday.

Geldart said that teamsters were respecting their picket line, which shut off incoming parts to the warehouse. Local parts company drivers were crossing the line, he said, with outgoing stock. Management and office workers were processing the orders, Geldart said.

Nearby at Keene Corporation, a lighting manufacturer, about 125 production employees are also on strike. Members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 1499, they are also striking for higher wages.

Keene public relations director Cliff Milton said that the union had rejected the company's contract offer.

IBEW local Chairman Peter Potenza said that the two sides were not very far apart. Negotiations had been conducted for about three weeks before the strike.

It all started in 1935...

The Tewksbury-Wilmington Thanksgiving Day football clash has a long and great history, filled with tradition, heated rivalry, and unforgettable football memories for players and loyal followers.

Since 1935 these two teams have met and waged gridiron warfare. The Redmen hold a 20-14 edge with seven games ending in ties.

Tewksbury dominated Wilmington in the early years, holding a 10-2-1 advantage from 1935 through 1947. The Wildcats ended that TMHS string in 1948 when they crushed Tewksbury 58-0 in a holiday contest that veteran Redmen rooters would like to forget.

Tewksbury began another swing after the 48 blasting by capturing four in a row until the two teams battled to a scoreless tie in 1953.

Since that time neither team has put together an awesome Thanksgiving winning streak. The Wildcats have put together a pair of three in a row streaks (60-62 and 66-68) before going on a four game unbeaten string from 1970 to 1973.

The Redmen won three in a row from 1963 to 1965.

Over the years the Thanksgiving Day game has very often been a deciding factor in determining the Merrimack Valley champion. This year the added incentive of crowning a Division II champion has come into play. Some of the greatest games in the star-studded Wildcat-Redmen history:

1969...Redmen 14, Wildcats 8 - Probably the greatest game in the long history as Tewksbury won their first and only MVC co-championship under Coach Robert Vadeboncoeur.

The Wildcats came into the game with junior running sensation Mike Esposito primed to rip up the tough Redmen defense.

But Tewksbury's defense bent but didn't break as all-Massachusetts linebacker Joe Hanley intercepted a pass in the endzone intended for Esposito to kill a fourth quarter Wildcat rally and save the game.

The dramatic defensive play by Hanley is probably the most talked about and remembered play in Tewksbury football history.

The Tewksbury offense was led by the backfield of quarterback Tim Walsh, and backs Mark Manley, Tim Bolduc, and Joe DeGrosso (the current Redmen trainer).

One of the most unusual psyche methods was conducted by Hanley and tackle Charlie Roux in the TMHS locker room as they whacked each other in the face prior to the game.

Hanley and Roux were elected co-captains for the 1970 season.

1970...Wildcats 13, Redmen 3 - Esposito and company remembered what the Redmen defense did to them the year before and made sure that it wouldn't happen again. This game was notable in the fact that Tewksbury managed to hold a powerful Wildcat team to 13 points. Kicker John Stotik provided Tewksbury with their only points with a field goal.

The Redmen went with junior quarterback Ted Casey and fullback Kevin Sullivan was carried of the field with a neck injury.

1971...Redmen 0, Wildcats 0 - Tewksbury lost a chance for a second co-championship under Vadeboncoeur when a mud-field at home slowed both offenses to a crawl. The Redmen were coming off an upset of the MVC leader Dracut but a snow storm had the players shoveling the bleachers clean and workers struggling to clear the field. What should have been a great game was ruined by the elements.

Redmen Captain Hovey Qua was named the game's most valuable player and Casey hooked up with right end John Smolinsky for a completed pass.

1972...Wildcats 13, Redmen 8 - The Redmen came into this game as overwhelming underdogs to the unbeaten MVC leading Wildcats. A Dave Smith to Charlie D'Avanzo 26 yard touchdown pass put Tewksbury up 8-0 a lead that the underdogs held for three quarters. Two fourth quarter TMHS fumbles and the passing of Wildcat quarterback Steve Coursey did it for the Wildcats. Bob Bavota came on to fill the running shoes of injured WHS star Dean Devlin. The 1972 WHS squad was one of the best defensive teams to come down the pike with linebackers Leo Campbell and Paul Olson, ends Jim McNally and Bruce McMillan and all-state tackle Alan Jansen.

1973...Wildcats 34, Redmen 0 - This game put the finishing touches on one of the most dismal seasons in Tewksbury football history. The Redmen finished 1-8 in Bob Vadeboncoeur's final season as coach.

Doug Stewart put on a receiving show for the Wildcats and Redmen fans got a glimpse of the flea flicker. (Tom Woods to Stewart). Carl Butler had a super game at quarterback for the Wildcats. The Wildcats' first score came when Rick Howlett recovered a blocked punt in the endzone.

Jack Holloway turned in an excellent game at middleguard for Wilmington. The game marked the end of a Redmen blue period. Tewksbury would dip into the Wildcat coaching ranks for a new coach and renewed spirit.

Fullback Tom Morin was named the TMHS MVP.

1974...Redmen 13, Wildcats 6 - Tewksbury held off a furious Wildcat fourth quarter rally that culminated in a heart-stopping goal line stand by the TMHS squad. Halfback Rick Mackey scored both Redmen touchdowns and all-conference middle guard

Mark Stephens was a standout on defense.

The win gave Tewksbury a 5-4-1 record under first year coach Bob Ayiward, who was on the opposite sideline after serving as an assistant coach on Fred Bellissimo's staff.

Veteran Redmen starters were winners for the first time. Included in that group were Mickey Rasmussen, Steve Flagg, (co-captain) Mike King (co-captain) Chuck Minard, Gus Mancuso, Richard Sullivan and Jim Panzino.

The Redmen finished strong after getting off to an 0-3 start in 1974.

1975...Redmen 14, Wildcats 14 - The two teams played remarkably well considering the game was played in a torrential rain storm.

The Redmen led by quarterback Tom Sullivan staged a fourth quarter comeback to gain a tie. Coach Bellissimo received a costly penalty when he ran onto the field to question a call that was going against Tewksbury - not Wilmington. The flag was thrown to advance the drive that enabled the Redmen to knot up the contest.

1976...Redmen - Wildcats -

This one should add to the growing list of great Thanksgiving Day games.

Redmen shooting for fourth title

When the Tewksbury High School football squad takes the field Thursday morning they will be looking to capture their fourth Merrimack Valley Conference title.

The Redmen won their first MVC crown in 1956 under Coach Charlie Hazel. The Redmen were co-champs in 1964 (with Chelmsford) and in 1969 (with Dracut). Frank Flanagan was 1964 coach while Bob Vadeboncoeur coached in 1969.

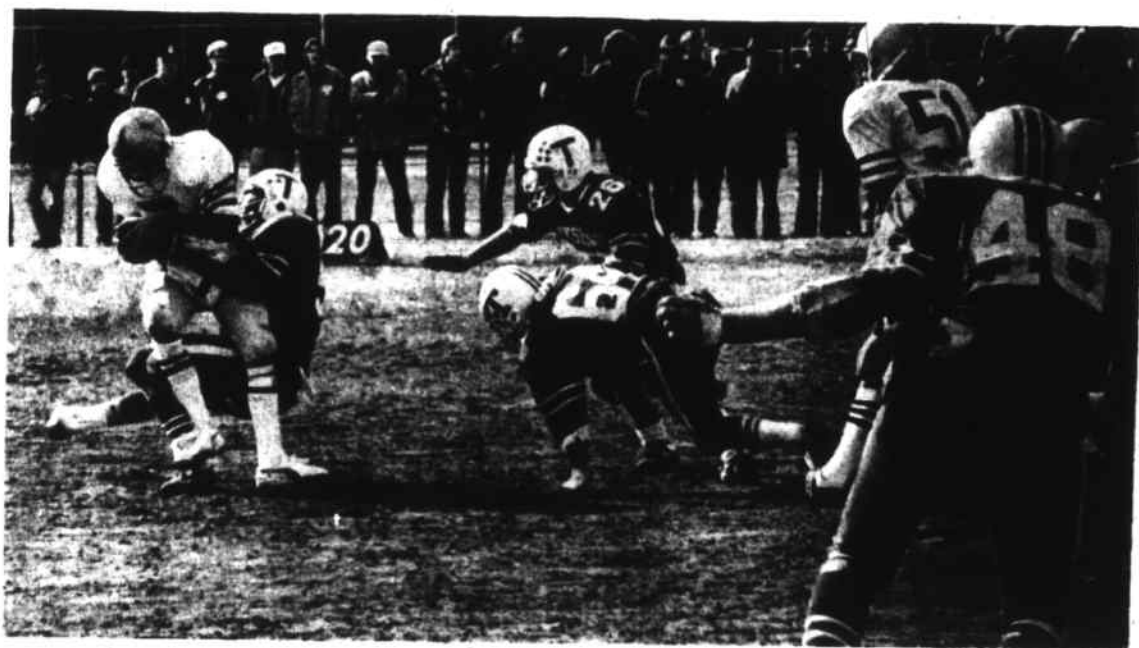

Retired athletic director Hazel coached the Redmen for many years prior to the formation of the MVC.

Hazel's MVC record was 7-17 during four MVC seasons. Bill O'Connell followed with a 3-7-2 mark for two seasons; Frank Flanagan was 18-14-1 for five years; Vadeboncoeur 23-30-2 for seven, and Bob Ayiward is currently working on a 19-8-2 record.

Tewksbury teams have an overall record of 58-76-7 since the MVC was formed in 1955.

The good old days!

How many of us in this day and age of stress say, "Remember the good old days?" Well, this Thanksgiving brings back memories because the annual Wilmington-Tewksbury turkey tilt is very similar to that of 15 years ago! My does time fly! This is 1976. Capt. Eddie Woods is a teacher in the Wilmington system. Jimmy Gillis doesn't tackle kids on the football field, but rather in the classroom. Kevin Field isn't making circus catches, he's at Burlington High School; he catches their attention with English Literature. Connie Barry used to be a star at TMHS, and now he coaches there. Bob Ayiward, Tewksbury mentor, was also a school football star at Somerville High and University of Wyoming for Wilmington and Fred Bellissimo was and is still head coach. That's right, football fans, in 1961 the same situation developed only the tables this year are turned.

In 1961, Wilmington was undefeated and Tewksbury had one loss. The game was at Tewksbury, a heavy snow had fallen two days before making the field treacherous. The outcome in 1961? A typical scene that highlighted that season, an Allard to Field pass and a 14-6 win for Wilmington, as well as Class C champion and Merrimack Valley champion.

TMHS girls have a lot to cheer about

Esposito sparks Falcons

Former Wilmington High School and Boston College Star runningback Mike Esposito sprinted to a 35 yard touchdown run to help the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons upset the East Division leading Dallas Cowboys 17-10 in Atlanta Sunday. The score was Esposito's first ever in a regular season game. The win was the second in a row for the Falcons whose record has improved to 4-7.

Esposito was cut earlier in the year but was brought back when the Falcons traded veteran running back Dave Hampton to the Philadelphia Eagles. Most of Mike's action has been coming on the special teams. Esposito has been waiting anxiously for a chance to prove himself in the NFL. Esposito proved something Sunday. Just ask the Dallas Cowboys.

ice hockey tournament

The University of Lowell will host the Lowell-Lawrence Chamber of Commerce Thanksgiving Ice Hockey Tournament November 24 and 25 at Skate 3 in Tyngsboro. Merrimack College will face North Adams on Wednesday, November 24 at 6 p.m., while ULowell will take on Norwich University at 8:30 p.m. the same night.

The consolation and championship games will be played on Thanksgiving night, November 25 at 6 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. respectively.

TMHS soccer completes learning process

Last year at this time, soccer didn't exist in Tewksbury. Then came the spring and the Tewksbury Recreation Department approved and accepted the costs of running a Spring Recreational soccer program for boys under 19.

Tewksbury entered a team in the Eastern Massachusetts Youth Soccer Association where although they didn't win a game, they were very competitive.

Then a May school committee meeting proposed a full-fledged Varsity Soccer Program at Tewksbury Memorial High School. The program was unanimously approved on a minimal budget and Tewksbury became one of the many towns to accept soccer as a varsity sport. There would be no home field for the first year, but the team was a reality with a membership in the newly formed Merrimack Valley Soccer Conference composed of teams from Billerica, Wilmington, St. John's of Danvers, Methuen, Chelmsford, Lawrence, Andover and Austin Prep.

Practicing on several fields, the Varsity Soccer squad began to work on the basic skills and positioning needed to be a competitive team in what would turn out to be one of the toughest conferences in the state. Hard work, dedication, and the desire to be very competitive brought to Tewksbury a very deceiving 1-14-2 overall final team record.

Finding the correct positions - the right people in the right place was the task that faced head coach Steve Levine as the season began. First came the discovering of the best defense - a goalie. Ray Tremlett, a junior and tri-captain elect for 1977, as well as an honorable mention on this year's MVC all-star selection became one of the league's best netminders as he allowed 35 goals while making 285 saves in 16 games with a 2.21 goals against average.

Next came the developing of a defense which, as the season ended could be deemed one of the top three in the league. Fullbacks included sophomore Scott Goldstein and tri-captain elect for 1977 James Maher, both with strong legs and aggressive pressure. At the safety valve (fullback) positions were juniors Tom Mallahan, and tri-captain elect for 1977 John Hurley. Both of these young men were the main reason that the numerous goals scored by the opposition at the beginning of the season were cut down to one or two a game from the fourth contest of the season. The halfback positions were the next to be built upon and 1976 captain Tom Flynn, playing most of the season with a broken wrist was the team's most durable ball control player.

Voted an honorary mention by the MVC Coaches, Flynn played almost every minute of the 17 game schedule which consisted of four 18 minute periods. Playing alongside Flynn were juniors Mark Morin and Mark Scamman. Scamman being more aggressive on the field and Morin known throughout the league for his "aggressive-bruising" play. The forward line which never really could get that needed goal as the season wore on was the prime concern of Levine.

"The opportunities to score were more than plentiful, but this year we just didn't have the foot to put the ball in the net." Realizing that both of Tewksbury's ties were 0-0 scores, that there were five games lost by one goal (four were 1-0 scores), and three games lost by two goals, Levine's point is obvious.

At the forwards were juniors Richard Smith and Michael DiGiorgio, along with wing James Lynch when he wasn't at that center position. The size of a player rarely makes a difference in the game of soccer, and little David Wakeen played both the wing and halfback-rover positions as well as any halfback in the league. Wakeen, a sophomore, typifies the youth movement on this year's team. Tewksbury had a squad of two seniors, Scott Pillsbury and Ed Healey, 15 juniors and five sophomores.

Other notables and prime factors in the recently concluded season were halfbacks Steve Rohrbacher and Bob Whalen, reserve fullback and 1976 co-captain Mark Ordway, and reserve forwards Vin Campo and Michael Morgan.

The future for Tewksbury Varsity Soccer is bright as Levine will be running spring programs for the junior high A students in the Bay Area Youth Soccer Programs with the hope that one day when these students make their way to the high school they will put Tewksbury on top. This year's team was a stepping stone to bigger and better things and as for next year, Levine's aim is to produce the offense which can support the successful defensive unit.

Youth Hockey Highlights

Tewksbury

The Tewksbury Midget G's took first place in the Tyngsboro League holding a 5-2-1 record.

During their last three encounters, they had a 3-3 tie with Chelmsford, trampled Lowell 8-2 and blanked Nashua 2-0.

John Walsh scored three goals for a hat trick game against Chelmsford with Bruce Harvey and Paul Tower earning assists. Brian Sprague and John Gonzalez shared goaltender's duties.

Paul Tower, John Walsh and Tom Hill each scored twice in the Lowell victory. Paul Erickson and Roger Vance added single goals. John Walsh and Tom Hill earned two assists apiece while solo helpers went to the hustle of Erickson, Bruce Harvey, Dave Byers, Gary Fedorchak, Steve Walsh and Mark Hill.

Brian Sprague and John Gonzalez shared honors in the T nets.

Goalie John Gonzalez posted his first solo shutout in Midget B nets turning aside many sure Nashua goals.

Gonzalez secured the nets along as Sprague is out on the injured list.

Mark Hill unassistedly

pocketed the only goal necessary. John Walsh added the insurance marker with assists to Tom Hill and Paul Tower.

The Midget B's had two non league contests recently tying Chelmsford 6-6 in a two hour match with 20 minute periods. John Walsh scored twice, Paul Tower, Mark Hill, Dave Bucknam each scored solo goals; Tom Hill picked up three assists and Bruce Harvey two.

Tewksbury topped Wilmington 4-2 with Mark Hill, Steve Walsh, Dave Bucknam and Paul Erickson all tallying single goals.

Squirt Internurals

The Blue and Orange entered into a 2-2 deadlock in Tewksbury Squirt Intramural action Sunday morning.

Left-winger Mike Broderick scored first for the Blues with fine passing from Jerry Buas. Wayne Sheehan scored the second blue goal on a full length rink rush.

Goalie Scott Nelson was super in the Blue nets.

Skating strongly were Danny Burns, Jerry Gannon, Ken Krugh, Rick McCormack, Joe Motola, Bobby Troy and John Pellegri.

On defense were Wayne Sheehan, Gary Corbett, Todd

Bonney and Scott Sutherland who were standouts.

Burns, Stars

Tommy Burns scored two shorthanded goals on the same shift, including the game winner, lifting the North Stars to a 4-2 victory over the Canadians, in Tewksbury Pee-Wee Intramural action Saturday night.

With all scoring done in the opening period both goaltenders were kept busy including Jimmy Angelo in the Star nets recording the win and Gary Jacopucci serving the Canadians nets.

The North Stars came out with a three goal lead before the Canadians answered twice followed by the North Stars' counter.

Jackie Michaud lit the Star lamp in a Keith Demouras assist opening the scoring. Tommy Burns scored his first shorthanded goal assisted by Kevin McKenna while the second had the help of Mike Kelliber.

Jeff Shaffner answered for the Canadians with an assist to Kevin Mally and Bruce Cabral closed the gap on another Mally hustle play. Armand Dias finalized the Star scoring sinking the fourth red light on the passing of Keith Demouras and Bruce Whitehouse.

Rotary Club

The Tewksbury Rotary Club Pee Wee B's lost a 7-2 decision last Tuesday night to a strong Winthrop team.

Terry Feran netted a "T" goal on a Rick Tolstrup assist and later Chuck Peterson scored unassistedly.

Goalie Chris Roy had a shutout performance as the Rotary Club traveled to Somerville last Wednesday night blanking them 4-0.

Terry Feran, Wally Maguire and Rick Tolstrup each had a board lighter and two assists. Glen Fougere added another "T" marker from the passing of Paul Crowley and Ricky Campbell.

Bantam Intramural Scott Peterson scored three goals for a hat trick game, pacing the Flames to a 6-1 victory over the Hornets, in Tewksbury Bantam Intramural action last Monday night.

Mark Harrington, Fred Mainey, and Billy True each added a goal.

The defense holding the opposition in check included Paul Cleveland who picked up two assists; Kevin Maguire, Mark Montecalvo and Danny Jacquard.

Tommy Bond posted the win losing his shutout in the first period on a Terry McCarthy goal.

Hornet goalie played a good game in nets despite the loss.

Mini-Computers

The Tewksbury Mini Computer Mite A's have been in stiff competition losing to Westford 6-3, Manchester 5-1 and shutout by Billerica 5-0.

Bobby Ware scored two unassisted markers in the Westford encounter. Jim Maniscalco notched the third on a Lee Sutherland assist.

Bobby Ware was the lone goal scorer for Tewksbury with a Brian Mann helper against Manchester.

Ronnie Outridge was in nets during all three encounters.

Wilmington

Bantam B1

November 15: The B1's bounced back to take a 7-2 win over Westford. The goal tending tandem of John Holmes and Matt DePasquale stopped all but two Westford shots. After Westford tied it 1-1 late in period one, the B's scored the next six in a row with Westford scoring later in the third period.

Scoring had Potenza, two goals, one assist; plus goals by Ford (two), Lowney, Duggan and Stokes. Assists went to MacDonald and Zambenardi, two each plus Turner, Smith, MacMullen, Wiberg and Foley.

November 17: In a non-league encounter, Lynn took a 3-1 decision with the B's missing a couple of regulars. Lynn is leading their division at Danvers - the B's lead theirs. The game that counts will be next March 26.

Ken MacMullen scored on an unassisted shot from the point to ruin the shut out with four minutes left in the game.

November 21: The B's League record went to 15 wins - two losses with a 7-0 shut out of Ipswich at Danvers. The fourth of the year. Matt DePasquale had an excellent game turning away the Ipswich attack.

Scoring saw Don Foley, 1-2, two goals each to Keith MacDonald and Billy Wallace; single scores to Smith and Lowney. Assists went to Ford (three); Wiberg and Zambenardi (two) with singles to Potenza and Murphy.

The next game will be played November 24 vs Haverhill at 6 p.m. at Wilmington to be followed on November 27 at Danvers at 10 p.m., vs. Wakefield.

Bantam A's

In a very impressive game against a razor sharp club the Bantam A's went onto victory once again to stay undefeated by a score of 6-3.

Things got off to a slow start in the first period due to the fine close checking of both clubs. Late in the period Scott Richards on an excellent pass from Jimmy (Spiff) Burns tucked it home to make it Wilmington one, Billerica zero.

The second period saw Tim McCann open things up a bit with a shot that beat Billerica's goalie cleanly on a pass from Mikey LaLiberte. Then only seven minutes later on a pass from Jimmy Burns and Scott Richards, Tim McCann put one more home to close the period 3-2 Wilmington.

The last period McCann didn't waste any time at all, by collecting a pass from Paul Boudreau he put on emore past a frustrated Billerica goalie. It didn't stop there as Jimmy Burns took a fine pass by Mark Boudreau to put one more on the board.

With only 40 seconds left in the game Dennis Foley, on a crisp pass from Erick Banda put one more goal on the board to make the win air tight. Goalie Rick Ballou with an injured left ankle came out of the net after a sterling performance and along with the rest of the team to tuck a fine win under their belts.

Bantam A's

Sunday, Nov. 21: Wilmington made their string of wins a little longer last Sunday by defeating the Manchester Coasacks 4-1.

The first period Wilmington's Tim McCann got the A's right on the board with a pretty goal from a pass by Paul Boudreau to make it 1-0. While the Coasacks were trying to get their act together the A's Rich Robinson on a breaking pass from Scott Richards put on past Manchester's goalie to make it 2-1.

The second period was played quite close by both teams with only one goal going to A's Scott Richards on a rebound from a Steve Scalon blast from the point.

The third period at 7:16 the Coasacks made the board despite a gallant effort by Rick Ballou to keep his shut out hope alive. Only two minutes later the A's Rich Robinson on a pass from Eddie Gironx beat the Coasacks' goalie nicely after being robbed earlier in the period. This makes the A's 15-0-1.

Squirt B's take two

Sat., Nov. 20: The Squirt B's skated to a 3-2 win over the first place Winthrop team at Danvers.

The B's opened the scoring with Jay Barrett jamming home his own rebound at 8:11 of the first period. Winthrop came back to tie the score at the end of the first period. The second period saw both teams with many chances, but all were denied. Solid body checking by Ralph Newhouse had all the Winthrop players looking around.

The third period saw Tommy Pazzyra come down his wing on a day a perfect pass to David Richards all alone in front for his first goal of the day. The game winner came on a Billy Woods pass to David Richards, who went in all alone to beat the Winthrop goaltender cleanly.

Solid backchecking by Jay McFayden in the third saved the day for the B's. The goaltenders, Billy Wolfe and Brian Surrutte, turned away 20 shots on goal, many being real testers.

Sat., Nov. 21: The Squirt B's skated to an impressive 4-1 victory over Peabody. The B's opened the scoring on a Billy Woods' wrist shot, from David Richards and Tommy Pazzyra. The remainder of the first period saw the B's unload 13 shots on the Peabody goal, but all were turned away.

The second period saw Jay Berrett get his first goal of the day unassisted. Then Greg Rogers flipped in a power play goal from David Lux and David Buzzell with four seconds to go in the period.

Redmen wiped out

Dave Woods (87) follows the blocking of Chris Briggs in Friday's 30-6 Wildcat frosh victory. The WHS freshmen went undefeated

Wildcat booters strong season

Coach Steve Lentine's Wilmington High School soccer squad finished up another successful season in the Merrimack Valley Soccer League as the WHS booters came home in second place (12-1-3) and qualified for another state tournament berth.

Wilmington's offense accounted for 39 goals while ace goalkeepers Dave and Peter McMillan combined to hold opponents to 13 scores for a superb .81 goals against average.

Leading the WHS offense was Jim Logan with 18 points (12 goals, six assists). Tom Stewart was right behind Logan with 10 points (five goals, five assists). Other top scorers were Dave Sousa (nine points) and Scott Lane (eight points). Sousa netted seven goals for WHS in 1976.

JV's-Frosh impressive

"I can't believe this team, where does Freddy come up with these kids?" That was the voice of a Greater Boston League official who just finished doing Wilmington's 30-6 freshmen rout over Tewksbury.

They've got two ends (Dave Woods and Mike DeGeronimo) along with that quarterback and running back (Tim Robarge, Chris Briggs) who are all very impressive.

Next year is the farthest from Coach Bellissimo's mind, but the future certainly looks bright for Wilmington football.

Coach Ed Harrison's Jayvee squad finished the season undefeated while compiling an 8-0-1 record.

The combine record of all three teams is 23-1-3. Not bad when you consider the size of Wilmington High School in comparison to other league schools.

The freshmen under Coach Jim Tildesley and assistant Carl Olson also went the season unbeaten 7-0-2.

Seymour - both first year starters. Seymour emerged as a star with excellent play in the Andover game. Both players compliment each other well and Coach Aylward has said that the Seymour-Sitar combo has been solid thanks to hard work by the pair.

The rest of the defense has been no slouch either however. The front five of Bill Ashe, Joe Gorfinkle, Charlie Panzino, Mark Petros and Matt Riddle along with linebackers Rick McGillick and Ron Lambert has held opponents to 863 rushing yards on 301 attempts for an average of 2.83 yards per rush.

The defense has allowed just 36 points while putting five shutouts on the board. The senior-laden backfield has been consistently coming up with the big turnover. The Redmen defense might be the deciding factor Thursday morning.

Al Fairbrother on stage

Al Fairbrother, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Fairbrother, Shawshen Ave., Wilmington, played the role of Rumi in the recent Emerson College production of Green Mansions by W.H. Hudson.

Green Mansions was presented by the Oral Interpretation division of Emerson's Speech and Communications Studies Department.

Fairbrother is a graduate student at Emerson, studying theater education.

Wildcat freshmen rip Redmen

Wildcat halfback Chris Briggs scored three touchdowns to power the undefeated WHS freshmen squad to a 30-6 pounding of Tewksbury last Friday afternoon at the Redmen gridiron.

Wilmington took a 14-0 first period lead as Briggs returned the opening kickoff 80 yards for a score and quarterback John Robarge hit received Dave Woods with a perfect 22 yard touchdown pass.

The Wildcats stretched their lead to 22-0 at halftime when Briggs sprinted in for a 12 yard touchdown. A pop pass to Bob DiGirolamo gave the Wildcats their second two point conversion of the game.

Briggs exploded again in the third quarter as he took a Robarge screen pass for a 50 yard touchdown ramble.

Chris broke away from several Redmen tacklers as he cut right to left enroute to his third score.

Coach Jock Patterson's Redmen got on the board when halfback Mark Rogers banged in from three yards out. The two point conversion run attempt by Bob Fraser fell just short of paydirt.

Wilmington 30 14 8 8 0 30
Tewksbury 6 0 0 6 0 6

Scoring

First quarter - W: Briggs 80 yard kickoff return; two point conversion fails.

Second quarter - W: Robarge 22 yard pass to Woods; 2 point pass to DiGirolamo.

Third quarter - W: Briggs 12 yard run.

Fourth quarter - W: Briggs 50 yard pass from Robarge; two point conversion.

Fourth quarter - T: Rogers three yard run; two point run failed.

Wang comeback dumps Mill 63-53

Last week's action in the Tewksbury Town Basketball League saw the Wang Lab squad rally to defeat Red Mill 63-53 in the first of two games played.

Former Dracut High guard Russ Dufresne led the way for Wang with 24 points. Veteran forward Tom Stratigakis finished with 20.

The Red Mill attack was paced by Bobby Fowler with 17 and Dave Parola with 10.

In the second game the Branding Iron built on a 32-25 halftime lead to cruise to a 71-57 win over Sullivan's

St. William's Sodality

Saint William's Church was the setting of the installation of seven ladies into the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary during a 7:30 p.m. mass. The Rev. Patrick Hollywood, pastor, and spiritual advisor, along with Mrs. Madeleine Mahoney, sodality prefect, welcomed the following ladies into the society: Deborah Grund, Regina Sargeant, Elizabeth Carciofi, Catherine Purtell, Eileen Prebensen, Eileen MacMillan and Virginia Babine.

Mrs. Dorothy Horgan provided music and hymns in honor of the Blessed Mother. Concluding the installation ceremony, a casserole supper was served at the parish center, hosted by Carol Kobelski and Kay Donahue.

Final preparations are underway for this year's parish Christmas Fair. The last two workshop dates for all parishioners interested in preparing items for the fair will be Tuesday, November 30 and Wednesday, December 1 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the parish center.

Ladies planning to attend the Christmas party are reminded to send their reservations to Fran Stasko by Tuesday, December 7. Those planning to attend are requested to bring a homemade Christmas tree ornament for exchange.

Santa in Tewksbury

St. William's Church will hold its annual Christmas Fair on Saturday, December 4 at the School Hall. Doors will open at 10 a.m. and remain open until 7 p.m.

One of the highlights will be the arrival of Santa Claus at Tewksbury Airport at 10 a.m. He will be greeted by the Rev. Patrick Hollywood, O.M.I., pastor; Mrs. Madeline Mahoney, Sodality Prefect and John Ryan, president of the Holy Name Society.

Upon his arrival, Santa will greet all his admirers and then board a fire engine proceeding along to the school hall on Main Street where he will be available throughout the day.

Many hours of hard work have gone into the preparation of the several hand-made items at the various tables.

Handling finances throughout the day will be Shirley Hines, Kevin Donnelly and Don Koelsar.

A frank and beans supper will be served by the Men's Club in the Parish Center between 4 and 7 p.m.

All proceeds from the event will benefit the parish.

Coach Aylward sees hard-hitting battle

As always Tewksbury High School's football coach is an extremely confident man. He fully expects to come out of the Thanksgiving morning showdown at Wilmington with a Merrimack Valley Conference championship and a berth in the Division II schoolboy superbowl game - to be played December 4 at Boston University's Nickerson Field.

The undefeated Redmen outfit is a true reflection of their coaches character. The 30-year-old Aylward's enthusiasm is contagious.

He gave his pre-game views after a Saturday morning practice. Favorable newspaper clippings covered one wall of the Redmen coaching staff's cubby-hole office at the Center School field.

"I concede nothing to Wilmington," Aylward emphatically pointed out. "They have a hell of a team and you can expect some battle. You're going to see a good hitting game - as good as anywhere in the state." Tewksbury and Wilmington kids are the best hitters - they're tough as hell and always do the very best they can.

Aylward did admit that if the field is bad the Wildcats will have a slight advantage because of their physical size. He expects to see some "terrific defense" on a bad field.

When asked if he thought the team would ever get to this point when he took the job three years ago after leaving the Wildcat coaching staff he said "we've talked about it since day one, but it's going to take 40 more tough minutes to make a dream come true. I haven't forgotten all those 40-9 games."

The key to all the success has been the kids' attitudes and Aylward is proud of that. "These kids get knocked down and get back up." He points out that his coaching staff and players have put in long extra hours of work to get this far in what he calls a "total effort."

Redmen leader talked about two key people who will have to play well for Tewksbury to defeat the Wildcats - on offense the man is junior quarterback Brian Wolfe.

"Brian has been an inspiration to us offensively. He has stood in there all year long. He's had good protection and on the few breakdowns that we've had he's hung in there."

Wolfe will be facing the best pass-rushing team in the MVC come Thursday.

The man who leads the Redmen defense is 5-5 155 pound junior middle guard Mark "Fuzzy" Petros. His size doesn't bother Aylward - "He disproves those theories that most coaches have that small kids can't play. The weight machine has helped all of our kids. Our kids are very strong." The coach mentioned that Mark has good upper body strength and that linebacker Rick McGillick and defensive backs Mike Seymour and Mike Sitar all have excellent strength for their size.

Having coached under Wilmington head man Bellissimo for several years it is natural to expect that Aylward would have some idea of the Wildcat Turkey game attack. "They'll try to come right at us - based on what they do best."

In last year's game Wildcat quarterback Jim Stewart gave Tewksbury fits with his quarterback option runs.

The Tewksbury coach knows that the Wildcats will be out to stop the Redmen sweep with Jay Petros and Gene Roux carrying the ball.

If the Wildcats should control the wide stuff - Aylward will be so means panic. "We have a diversified attack, I don't think they can dictate to us. The sweep is a great play and we have fine backs and have been getting the downfield blocks. "We also have a strong inside attack - we hit every hole."

This year Aylward hopes his team can keep the Wildcat signal-caller under wraps. "We're going to go right at him. He's a great athlete and has it all. He throws and runs well. He's a very intelligent kid - a terrific kid. He just oozes with confidence."

Wildcat fullback Gordie Fitch impresses Aylward with his strength and scatback Bob Sferazza presents TMHS with yet another problem - stopping a real burner. "Sferazza is the fastest back in the league. I would have to say he is faster than Jay." (Petros) The coach describes Wildcat Steve Woods as a "sleeper." "He's a fine athlete and could step right in and play quarterback."

Without giving away his game plan Aylward offered that his squad is "basically a running team. We play 25 kids during a course of a game. This is not based on 25 kids having equal ability, but they are all intelligent and hard working."

As far as the Super Bowl goes, Aylward is not looking past this game with Wilmington. He sees Lynn Classical as a "sure bet" to be one of the teams to qualify for the Division II title clash.

If the Wildcat-Redmen battle ends in a tie, Aylward thinks his team will still qualify for the Division II game - but he was still in the process of checking this out. If the game does end in a tie the Redmen would probably still hold a slight edge in the Division II ratings.

What is clear is this - "If we win it we're in," says Aylward with a smile. There's no doubt about that.

- Cooke

Rounds' ball

Wildcat linebacker-guard Dave Rounds pounces on a fumble in 1976 action. Rounds is one of the better blockers in the MVC.

2,036 running yards

Petros Keys running attack

Junior running back Jay Petros has keyed the Tewksbury football machines ground attack in 1976. The Redmen sensation has gained 1,129 yards on 138 carries. He also has 13 touchdowns, an outstanding average of 8.1 yards per carry. The Tewksbury sweep has laid MVC opposition to rest.

Senior Gen Roux is a solid contributor to the attack with 428 yards on 95 lugs. Blocking back Rick Billings has done his share with 317 yards on 80 carries.

The Redmen ground attack has run up 2,036 yards on 304 attempts for an excellent 5.3

yards per carry average.

Junior quarterback Brian Wolfe has had several excellent games. Brian is 28 for 70 on passing attempts for 40 per cent completion percentage. He has three touchdown passes and seven interceptions. The signal-caller has passed for 438 yards for an average 15.7 yards per completion.

Tim Weissensee and Roux are the leading receivers. Weissensee has nine catches for 180 yards and two touchdowns. Roux has caught 10 balls for 84 yards.

J. Petros also done well returning punts. He has 12 returns for a 15.6 yards average and one touchdown. Roux has six returns for a 13.8 average.

Jay leads the TMHS scoring parade with 14 touchdowns and 84 points. Roux follows with six touchdowns and six two point conversions for 40 points.

Kicker Al "Alley Cat" Santos leads area kickers in points after touchdowns with 19. Santos also has a 22 yard field goal (vs Central) to total 22 points on the year. Quarterback Brian Wolfe has three touchdowns to his credit while fullback Rick Billings has banged in a pair of scores.

Wildcat-Redmen battle generates fan fervor

The Thanksgiving Day clash between Division II - Merrimack Valley combatants Tewksbury and Wilmington has generated tremendous fan interest all over the area.

Ticket sales have been booming in both towns with 1500 tickets being gobbled up over the course of one day in Tewksbury.

The question in Tewksbury is "Have you got your ticket yet?" If you still haven't purchased your ticket by the time you read this get to bed early Wednesday night and be prepared to stand in line Thanksgiving morning in a struggle for the remaining tickets.

After you've got the ticket the next pertinent question - who do you think will win?

The question was asked a number of football rooters as they satisfied their thirsts at a local pub last week. The answers were fast in coming. No one seems to be sitting on the fence prior to this tilt. Everyone has an opinion. Most have picked their favorite.

The fans view: Billy Weiss (Tewksbury resident) "without injuries Tewksbury can't touch Wilmington. The Wildcats have a strong defense and their offense is just too much."

Tewksbury won't do anything against their defense. 21-6 - Wilmington will win."

Jim Looney (a tackle on the 1973 Redmen squad) - "I think Tewksbury will win."

The spirit on the Tewksbury defense is incredible. I only saw Wilmington play once (against Central), but I still think Tewksbury has the better defense."

Brian Smith (a punter on the 1973 team) - "I'm predicting a 0-0 tie. Both defenses are too good. It could be a sloppy field too. Both teams are street fighters. Tewksbury has an outside shot because of Aylward."

Brian Sheehan - "Tewksbury will win 6-0. The kids are all fired up this is their first chance in a long time."

Steve Danlevy - "Tewksbury by 10. They have an explosive offense and a good defense. Good all-around organization."

John Hagerty - "Tewksbury by six because of their strong defense. It will be a low-scoring game."

Kevin VonKahle - "Tewksbury will win because Petros is a better all-around back than Fitch. If Tewksbury gets going the game could be a romp."

Ted Casey - (former Redmen quarterback) "It will be a very close game. The team with the most pride will win."

Bill Blakeney - (high school substitute teacher) "Tewksbury by three. Both teams have good defense. The difference will be a field goal."

Mike Gessner - (in a highly analytical opinion) "I think Tewksbury is going to lose because my sister thinks they're going to win."

Harold Sullivan - "Tewksbury will win because they are the best. Wilmington only has an 11 man team - they have no depth."

Joe Sabato - "Tewksbury is the better team - they are hungrier."

Bob Clampa - "Tewksbury has the stronger offense even though they are smaller. Defense is as strong as Wilmington's."

Gerry O'Keefe - "Just take a look at their record - they have the better team."

Buddy Caveney - "It will be a close game, but Tewksbury will win. Aylward will get them up for it."

Dave Harrington - "Tewksbury by a field goal."

John Gardner - "Tewksbury will win, but not by much. They are playing together and have the best coach you could ever want. No one will win by much more than a touchdown. It will be a close game. John McPhail - "Everything depends on the weather." Debbie Mackey - "Tewksbury by two points." Donna Jacobson - "Tewksbury will win because they are the greatest."

Joe Sullivan - (Former TMHS guard) - "I have no opinion, but I can offer this - those who do not learn from their mistakes are condemned to repeat them." So on that confusing note the final question must be asked - Who do you think will win?

MVC forecast

The Pick - Wildcats by two

Looking into the High School football future is an extremely risky business. When you have to choose between two such evenly matched teams as are Tewksbury and Wilmington - the forecaster leaves himself wide open.

Well, here goes - I'm fair game. Take your best shot if I'm wrong. The Wilmington Wildcats are the two point choice to knock Tewksbury from the ranks of the unbeaten. If the game is a high-scoring affair it will surprise me. The Redmen defensive line will have to really get off the ball to thwart the forward thrust of the impressive WHS offense. They have some people there (Dave Rounds, John Campbell, John Maga) who can blow the other club back a good five yards upon impact. The Redmen defense could be in trouble if the Wildcats can stop the stunting action that has helped Tewksbury from time to time in 1976.

Another factor is quarterback. Wilmington has a heady senior in Jim Stewart. He's been the Thanksgiving Day route before. His running could turn the game around. Last year Stewart's run - almost did the Redmen in.

Tewksbury at times this year has tried to force the Petros-Roux sweep when it wasn't there. They shouldn't - and probably won't force it against the Wildcats. If the Redmen get the sweep cranked up early Wilmington is in trouble. The Wildcats must come out and shut that play down early - prove that they can stop it - or run the risk of having the football run down their throats.

The first quarter will be very important. This is a highly emotional contest and if one team were to sap the other of an emotional high - look out it could be over early. Redmen quarterback Brian Wolfe will be playing his first Thanksgiving Day game. How the junior signal caller survives the roller-coaster ride that his stomach is bound to take is a factor of sizeable importance. The kid does have character. He has hung in there all year. He may be caught in the storm of a fine Wildcat pass rush if he is forced to throw.

Two very distinct advantages are in Tewksbury's corner - the unrestrained enthusiasm of head coach Bob Aylward and the toe of kicker Al Santos. Wouldn't little Al love to boot a game winning field goal with two seconds left. Why Tewksbury would probably have the kid bronzed.

If anyone deserves a championship it is Aylward. He has molded a team that goes out and gets the job done. There are no impressively big people on this squad. They just go out and do the job. There is but an enore job to complete - and Mr. Fred Bellissimo and his Wildcats are standing directly in Tewksbury's path.

Other games - overall forecast record, 30 right, 10 wrong.

Billerica at Chelmsford - Coach Tom Caito's team is young and all enthused over a chance at a winning season. Some Indian seniors would dearly love to finish in third place. A few breaks here and there and Billerica might have still been battling for the MVC title.

Let's go with Chelmsford and their improving ground game led by Joe Sullivan. Chelmsford by six.

Dracut at Methuen - Methuen shocked the Middle last year and nothing says that it can't happen again - and it probably won't. Dracut by 12.

Central at Andover - Oh are things on a downward slide at Central. The Red Raiders were in the thick of things just three weeks ago. Billerica and Tewksbury buried them as the slide began. Andover looked very angry in beating Dracut 40-0. Andover by 14.
